

European Urbanism in the 20th Century

The Tension between Real and Written History

Lecture series,
Institut für Europäische
Urbanistik,
Professur Raumplanung
und Raumforschung,
Monday, 5:00 - 6:30 pm,
Marienstraße 13c HS C

11.4.2016 20th Century European Urbanism

Max Welch Guerra, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

18.04.2016 Urbanism in Weimar during the NS-Dictatorship

Caroline Kauert, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

25.04.2016 Towards a National Planning Law: New Plans for Madrid, Barcelona and Bilbao in Early Francoism

Piero Sassi, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

02.05.2016 20th Century European Historiography

Max Welch Guerra, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

30.05.2016 Preservation of Franco's Social Housing Estates in Madrid

Ainhoa Díez de Pablo, Universidad Politécnica de Madrid

06.06.2016 Equivalent or left behind? - Spatial Planning Policies for Rural Areas in Germany

Britta Trostorff, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

13.06.2016 From Making Space for "the Woman" to Intersectionality, Heteronormativity and Sexuality –
a Short History of Gender Planning

Jenny Künkel, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

20.06.2016 Gated Communities in Buenos Aires during the 20th Century

Max Welch Guerra, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

27.06.2016 Urban Design Components for the Modernisation of Portuguese Small Towns during the Salazar Dictatorship

Christian von Oppen, Technische Universität Berlin

04.07.2016 Perverse Incentive: Industrial Heritage Sites in Post-Socialist Serbia

Srdjan Mandic, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

Conclusions and Further Discussion

Max Welch Guerra, Bauhaus-Universität Weimar

SPONSORED BY THE

Federal Ministry of Education and Research